George Marten

gjm2004[at]hw.ac.uk
georgemarten.net

EDUCATION

Ph.D., Economics, Heriot-Watt University (Current)

M.Sc., Economics, University of Edinburgh 2022

B.Sc., Economics, Royal Holloway College 2020

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Economic History, Applied Econometrics, Applied Microeconomics

WORKING PAPERS

1. "Does Public Spending Crowd Out Mutual Organisation? Evidence from the New Poor Law and Friendly Societies"
2. "Covariate Shocks, Recession, and Contagion: Evidence from the Lancashire Cotton Famine"
3. "Gender-Biased Institutional Change: Irish Co-operative Dairying 1901-1911"
   with Eoin McLaughlin

DATASETS

"Friendly Societies of England, Scotland, and Wales, 1855–1875"
Panel dataset of c. 10,000 observations, linked to census registration district geographies.
Available on request; public release planned following publication.

WORKS IN PROGRESS

1. "Irish Microfinance: Poor Relief Impacts of Savings Bank Closures in 1848"
   with Eoin McLaughlin
2. "Securitisation: Towards a Theoretical Model"
   with George Smith

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant (Part-time), Heriot-Watt University 2021–2025

- Intermediate Economics 2 (MSc) 2025
- The Economy (1) 2022–2023
- Introductory Economics (1) 2021

Tutor in Economics (Full-time), University of Edinburgh 2021–2023

- Firms, Markets, and Competition (4) 2022
- Introductory Behavioural Economics (2) 2022
- Statistical Methods for Economics (2) 2021–2022
- Introductory Financial Economics (1) 2021–2022
- Economic Principles (1) 2021–2022
- Introductory Economics (1) 2022
- Economics 1 (1) 2021

Note: Number in parentheses refers to year of programme taught.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND HONOURS

Full scholarship for Ph.D. (Economics), CSED Analytics, Heriot-Watt University 2023–2026

Economics Prize, St. Crispin's Secondary School, Wokingham 2017

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

"Industrial Shocks and the Geography of Poor Relief: The Lancashire Cotton Famine, 1861-65" Jun 2025
PhD Workshop in Quantitative Economic History, CEPH, Belfast

"Weaving Resilience: Public Vs. Private Welfare Provision" Jan 2026
Scottish Graduate Programme in Economics Conference, Crieff

"Poor Relief and Friendly Societies during the Lancashire Cotton Famine" Dec 2025
Economic History Society (EHS) PhD Residential Training Course, Warwick

"Does Welfare Make Us Stronger?" Jun 2025
PhD Workshop in Quantitative Economic History, CEPH, Belfast

"Local Collective Action, Welfare, and Recession Jan 2025
Scottish Graduate Programme in Economics Conference, Crieff

"An EKC for the UK? Toward a spatial analysis across Local Authorities" Jan 2024
Scottish Graduate Programme in Economics Conference, Crieff

SEMINARS AND COLLOQUIA

"Weaving Resilience: Public Vs. Private Welfare Provision" Jan 2026
Graduate Economic and Social History Seminar, University of Oxford

"Has the UK grown more than it thinks? UK Air Pollution: Gross Damages vs Value Added" Mar 2024
Budapest University of Technology and Economics, Hungary

WORKSHOPS AND SUMMER SCHOOLS

PhD Workshop in Quantitative Economic History, CEPH, Belfast Jun 2025, May 2026

SGPE Summer School: Long-Run Urban Development, Stirling May 2026
Taught by Prof. Stephan Heblich (Toronto)

PhD Residential Training Course, EHS, Warwick Dec 2025

Summer School in Social Science History, University of Jyväskylä, Finland Jun 2024
Taught by Prof. Anne McCants (MIT)

Irish Quantitative Economic History (IQEH) Workshop, Trinity College Dublin Jan 2024

Market Mind Hypothesis Workshop, University of Edinburgh Dec 2024
Led by Prof. Deirdre McCloskey (Chicago)

EXTENSION ACTIVITIES

Early Career Economics Seminar Series Organiser, Heriot-Watt University 2026

EHS Annual Conference Student Assistant, Economic History Society 2025

School Officer, School of Social Sciences (SoSS), Heriot-Watt University 2023–2024

Doctoral Conference Lead Organiser, SoSS, Heriot-Watt University 2023–2024

SKILLS

Programming: R, Stata, LaTeX

Languages: English (native), French (basic), Slovak (basic)

REFERENCES

Dr. Eoin McLaughlin
Professor (supervisor)
Department of Economics
Heriot-Watt University
E.McLaughlin[at]hw.ac.uk

Dr. Mark Schaffer
Professor
Department of Economics
Heriot-Watt University
M.E.Schaffer[at]hw.ac.uk

Dr. Jefferson Frank
Professor
Department of Economics
Royal Holloway College
J.Frank[at]rhul.ac.uk