George Marten

gjm2004[at]hw.ac.uk
georgemarten.net

EMPLOYMENT

LSE Fellow in Economic History (Full-Time), London School of Economics	(Current)
Teaching Assistant (Part-time), Heriot-Watt University	2021–2026
Tutor in Economics (Full-time), University of Edinburgh	2021–2023
Private Tutor (Part-time), Self-Employed	2017–2023
Student Ambassador (Part-time), Royal Holloway College	2017–2020

EDUCATION

Ph.D., Economics, Heriot-Watt University*	(Current)
M.Sc., Economics, University of Edinburgh*	2022
B.Sc., Economics, Royal Holloway College	2020

Both courses are part of the Scottish Graduate Programme in Economics (SGPE).*

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Economic History, Applied Econometrics, Applied Microeconomics

PUBLICATIONS

1. "A Brief Guide to Processing Historical Data: From Tables to Visuals"
   Forthcoming in "Research Handbook on Gender, History, and Law"
   Editors: Danaya C. Wright, Caroline Derry, and Rosemary Auchmuty.
   Published by Edward Elgar. Expected release: late 2026/early 2027.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant (Part-time), Heriot-Watt University	2021–2026
Intermediate Economics 2 (2)	2024/25–2025/26
Economics for Business (MSc)	2024/25
The Economy (1)	2022/23
Introductory Economics (1)	2021/22
Tutor in Economics (Full-time), University of Edinburgh	2021–2023
Firms, Markets, and Competition (4)	2022/23
Introductory Behavioural Economics (2)	2022/23
Statistical Methods for Economics (2)	2021/22–2022/23
Introductory Financial Economics (1)	2021/22–2022/23
Economic Principles (1)	2021/22–2022/23
Introductory Economics (1)	2022/23
Economics 1 (1)	2021/22

Note: Number in parentheses refers to year of programme taught.

WORKING PAPERS

1. "Economic distress during the Lancashire Cotton Famine, 1861-65"
   Target journal: The Economic History Review
2. "Two Ways to Pool Risk: Friendly Societies and the New Poor Law in Nineteenth-Century England and Wales"
   Target journal: The Journal of Economic History
3. "Institutions Against Demographic Crisis? Irish Co-operative Dairying 1901-1911"
   with Eoin McLaughlin
   Target journal: Explorations in Economic History

DATASETS

"Friendly Societies of England, Scotland, and Wales, 1855–1875"
Panel dataset of c. 10,000 observations, linked to census registration district geographies.
Available on request; public release planned following publication.

WORKS IN PROGRESS

1. "Irish Microfinance: Poor Relief Impacts of Savings Bank Closures in 1848"
   with Eoin McLaughlin
2. "Securitisation: Towards a Theoretical Model" with George Smith

SCHOLARSHIPS AND HONOURS

Full scholarship for Ph.D. (Economics), CSED Analytics, Heriot-Watt University 2023–2026

Economics Prize, St. Crispin's Secondary School, Wokingham 2017

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

"Industrial Shocks and the Geography of Poor Relief: The Lancashire Cotton Famine, 1861-65" May 2026
PhD Workshop in Quantitative Economic History, CEPH, Belfast

"Weaving Resilience: Public Vs. Private Welfare Provision" Jan 2026
Scottish Graduate Programme in Economics Conference, Crieff

"Poor Relief and Friendly Societies during the Lancashire Cotton Famine" Dec 2025
Economic History Society (EHS) PhD Residential Training Course, Warwick

"Does Welfare Make Us Stronger?" Jun 2025
PhD Workshop in Quantitative Economic History, CEPH, Belfast

"Local Collective Action, Welfare, and Recession Jan 2025
Scottish Graduate Programme in Economics Conference, Crieff

"An EKC for the UK? Toward a spatial analysis across Local Authorities" Jan 2024
Scottish Graduate Programme in Economics Conference, Crieff

SEMINARS AND COLLOQUIA

"Weaving Resilience: Public Vs. Private Welfare Provision" Jan 2026
Graduate Economic and Social History Seminar, University of Oxford

"Has the UK grown more than it thinks? UK Air Pollution: Gross Damages vs Value Added" Mar 2024
Budapest University of Technology and Economics, Hungary

WORKSHOPS AND SUMMER SCHOOLS

PhD Workshop in Quantitative Economic History, CEPH, Belfast — May 2026

SGPE Summer School: Long-Run Urban Development, Stirling — May 2026
Taught by Prof. Stephan Heblich (Toronto)

PhD Residential Training Course, EHS, Warwick — Dec 2025

PhD Workshop in Quantitative Economic History, CEPH, Belfast — Jun 2025

Summer School in Social Science History, University of Jyväskylä, Finland — Jun 2024
Taught by Prof. Anne McCants (MIT)

Irish Quantitative Economic History (IQEH) Workshop, Trinity College Dublin — Jan 2024

Market Mind Hypothesis Workshop, University of Edinburgh — Dec 2023
Led by Prof. Deirdre McCloskey (Chicago)

EXTENSION ACTIVITIES

Departmental Summer Seminar Series Organiser, Heriot-Watt University — 2026

Early Career Economics Seminar Series Organiser, Heriot-Watt University — 2026

EHS Annual Conference Student Assistant, Economic History Society — 2025

School Officer, School of Social Sciences (SoSS), Heriot-Watt University — 2023–2024

Doctoral Conference Lead Organiser, SoSS, Heriot-Watt University — 2023–2024

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant, Heriot-Watt University — 2021/22–2025/26
Canvas Virtual Learning Environment (VLE): Producing, uploading, and managing course content alongside submission grading.

Tutor in Economics, University of Edinburgh — 2021/22–2022/23
Learn VLE: Managing course content, grading, and online student Q&A forums (Piazza).

School Officer, SoSS, Heriot-Watt University — 2023–2024
Regular meeting attendance and communications management between PGRs and School.

Doctoral Conference Lead Organiser, SoSS, Heriot-Watt University — 2023–2024
Delegation and project management/delivery.

Private Tutor (Economics), Self-Employed — 2017–2023
Mentorship and managing one-to-one student support throughout my studies.

SKILLS

Programming: R, STATA, LaTeX

Languages: English (native), French (basic), Slovak (basic)

REFERENCES

Dr. Eoin McLaughlin
Professor (supervisor)
Department of Economics
Heriot-Watt University
E.McLaughlin[at]hw.ac.uk

Dr. Mark Schaffer
Professor
Department of Economics
Heriot-Watt University
M.E.Schaffer[at]hw.ac.uk

Dr. Jonathan Thomas
Professor
School of Economics
University of Edinburgh
Jonathan.Thomas[at]ed.ac.uk